GREAT ENGLISH INTERIORS

This special edition revives an acclaimed work. Exquisite photographs showcase England's finest buildings, guiding the reader through five centuries of English architecture and interior design.

Mlinaric's informed text and Moore's perceptive photographs present the best examples of both public and private buildings— from sixteenth-century Haddon Hall, Chastleton and Knoles to seventeenth-century Hatfield and Wilton; Houghton Hall and Syon House from the eighteenth century; Apsley House, the Palace of Westminster and Waddesdon Manor from the nineteenth; and twentieth-century examples including Charleston and the Apollo Victoria Theatre. The work of British masters including Inigo Jones, William Kent and Robert Adam, as well as of influential twentieth-century tastemakers such as Nancy Lancaster, Pauline de Rothschild and David Hicks, is revealed in striking photographs and authoritative texts.

BERTHE MORISOT

SHAPING IMPRESSIONISM

Berthe Morisot: Impressionism and the 18th Century is the first major UK exhibition of the renowned Impressionist since 1950. In partnership with the Musée Marmottan Monet, Paris, it will bring together around 30 of Morisot's most important works from international collections to reveal the artist as a trailblazer of the movement as well as uncovering a previously untold connection between her work and 18th century culture, with around 20 works for comparison.

A founding member of the Impressionist group, Berthe Morisot (1841-1895) was known for her swiftly painted glimpses of contemporary life and intimate domestic scenes. She featured prominently in the Impressionist exhibitions and defied social norms to become one of the movement's most influential figures. Berthe Morisot: Impressionism and the 18th Century will draw on new research and previously unpublished archival material from the Musée Marmottan Monet to trace the roots of her inspiration, revealing the ways in which Morisot engaged with 18th century art and culture.

MONET

THE ESSENTIAL PAINTINGS

This magnificent boxed-set features stunning, accordion-fold, colour reproductions of Monet's essential works, accompanied by a separate booklet with background and descriptions of each painting.

Natural beauty, colour and light were the object of Monet's incessant research, and he never lost sight of what was essential to him – the truth of his sensations. From the faithful transcription of the landscape in his early days to the gestural drawing of the final water lilies at Giverny, this book allows us to follow and understand the evolution of his creativity. The themes of Monet's work (the seashore, the Seine, gardens, the seasons) are discussed, as well as the techniques he used, such as the decomposition of light and colour through the brushstroke; the use of repetition and series to better reflect atmospheric variations; and the progressive dissolution of forms, which led to him being considered the precursor of abstraction. Packaged in an elegant slipcase, this volume reflects the beautiful artistry and timeless traditions that are embodied in the artworks themselves.

ARE YOU CURIOUS ABOUT WHAT LIVES IN THE OCEAN?

If the answer is yes, then this book is a great place to start! You'll have loads of fun looking for the animals in the jigsaw puzzle, but first, check out a few interesting facts about each of them.

LET'S DIVE IN!

PENGUIN
It may be a bird, but it can't fly! It waddles slowly on land, but in the water, it swims faster than a ship.

HIPPOCAMPUS
This tiny fish is also known as a seahorse. Indeed, its head looks just like that of a horse. Another of its characteristics is that it blends in perfectly with coral!

CLOWN FISH
It lives among the tentacles of sea anemones, which if touched cause an intense burning sensation... unless you're a clown fish!

SOLE
This fish always swims on its side, and this is why one eye slowly moves to the same side of its head as the other eye—otherwise it would face the ocean floor!

GREAT WHITE SHARK
Its huge mouth, filled with 5 to 7 rows of sharp teeth, make it an exceptional predator. But that's not all—it can also reach incredible speeds.

BLUE WHALE
It can grow up to 100 feet (30 m) in length, making it the largest animal on our planet!

KILLER WHALE
Like all cetaceans, it's a very intelligent mammal, and it can communicate with other killer whales through sounds and clicks.

SPIRIT WHALE
This whale can dive to incredible depths to hunt its favorite prey: the very dangerous giant squid.

TANATEE
It's a placid animal that spends most of the day off the ocean floor with its hundreds of bristly whiskers, looking for its favorite food: algae.

WALRUS
Do you know what its long, curved tusks are for? To help it haul itself out of the water and onto the sea ice it lives on.

BIG EMOTIONS FOR LITTLE PEOPLE

This board book is a simplified version from the best-selling book, How Do I Feel? A Dictionary of Emotions for Children. It helps to introduce children to emotions and how they might look, using other toddlers so they can recognise themselves in the illustrations, which is very important.

When we help young children label their emotions, it helps them to understand and manage what they are feeling and to improve their emotional literacy as they grow.

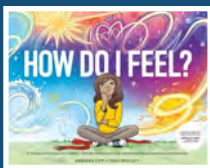

When big emotions come to visit, use the simple belly-breathing tool at the back to help your child find their way back to calm. This is a simple yet effective tool in helping children manage big emotions. Used regularly it can really help a child to learn to manage and regulate their own emotions over time.

TOP TEN THE MOST DANGEROUS DINOSAURS

The new Top Ten series presents a wide range of subjects to children in a way that plays off of their innate sense of excitement and curiosity.

Do you think you can name the ten deadliest dinosaurs in history? Surely, you're imagining large carnivores, such as the T. rex. But did you know that brute force didn't always prevail? Sometimes an unsuspected secret weapon used at the right time could be more effective and destructive. So, even a peaceful herbivorous dinosaur could turn into a deadly machine! The danger level will increase as we count down from ten all the way up to terrible number one! In each book, the text builds on common knowledge to unhinge unexpected facts and

THE NARRATIVE

The Wheatbelt town of Kilgarry doesn't like change. So, when graduate teacher Amy Hansen arrives with her city-girl attitude, friction grows quickly. The male population either want to marry her... or run her out of town!

Twelve-year-old student Leah Hargreaves comes from farming royalty. To Amy, the narrative she writes in class is a cry for help, emanating from a place deep inside her... a place damaged and laden with fear.

Distrusted and harassed by the very people who are supposed to protect them, Amy and Leah come out fighting, turning life in Kilgarry into a battle zone that is both explosive and corrosive. Keeping their sanity will be hard enough. Delivering justice when the laws are so easily manipulated, might just prove to be impossible...

FOURTEEN POEMS TO SAY I LOVE YOU

How many ways are there to say the words "I love you"?

According to poetry, the ways are countless and rich – with room for humour, lust, tenderness and a healthy dose of self-mockery.

These fourteen poems are not about love but declare it with an immediacy that's captivating and irresistible. Longing may be expressed using all sorts of images – there's even a riff on a famous Shakespeare sonnet where we find ourselves in outer space – but at the heart of all the poems is love and the urgent need to proclaim it:

"I love your eyes when the lovelight lies

Lit with a passionate fire."

- from 'I Love You' by Ella Wheeler Wilcox

This is an anthology that says "I love you" with a freshness and directness that's guaranteed to stir even the stoniest of hearts.

HOW DO I LOVE THEE? LET ME COUNT THE WAYS.
I LOVE THEE TO THE DEPTH AND BREADTH AND HEIGHT
MY SOUL CAN REACH, WHEN FEELING OUT OF SIGHT
FOR THE ENDS OF BEING AND IDEAL GRACE.
I LOVE THEE TO THE LEVEL OF EVERY DAY'S MOST QUIET NEED, BY SUN AND CANDLE-LIGHT.
I LOVE THEE FREELY, AS MEN STRIVE FOR RIGHT.
I LOVE THEE PURELY, AS THEY TURN FROM PRAISE.
I LOVE THEE WITH THE PASSION PUT TO USE
IN MY OLD GRIEFS, AND WITH MY CHILDHOOD'S FAITH.
I LOVE THEE WITH A LOVE I SEEMED TO LOSE
WITH MY LOST SAINTS. I LOVE THEE WITH THE BREATH,
SMILES, TEARS, OF ALL MY LIFE; AND, IF GOD CHOOSE,
I SHALL BUT LOVE THEE BETTER AFTER DEATH.

Choosing a dinghy

Search the internet to see the best dinghies that take your needs and get your requirements right: a sailing school or a club before going to visit both.

Our first family dinghy, bought on impulse from a garage basement, was our guide and joy for the first month. We soon learned from invaluable to us.

Once you know the basics, you will have so much more fun on the open sea than sailing to your club level and the area you want to sail. If you are joining a club, then asking one of their representatives will give you a group of like-minded enthusiasts who will not only be pleased to offer help and advice – and you start learning them around the next corner if you prefer a boat to come about or wind sea to change course without the usual you need one that is lighter than the sailing school, easy to launch and recover, and simple to rig.

Repeaters – dinghies, other high performance, but only for those with experience and ability to manage them.

Laser DINGHY

Displacement	100kg/10

The Laser DINGHY is a modern, stable, general purpose family dinghy that can be sailed, stored or stored. The laser dinghies are recommended for the family sailing. It is an ideal first boat to learn to sail in, having proved a good basis to which to compare and judge other boats.

Capsize and recovery

Capsize drill
It is a good idea to practice this on a calm day. Chaining to a corner through manouver when using dinghies. It is certainly something to be and avoid but not how. When you know the drill the worst that can happen – if you get well!

The worst method of recovery
This method ignores the crew back into the boat as it is a right. Crew pushes the windward/downtopboard right down.

- 1 Helm (or helms) person, needs, needs, one hand and pressure to climb up on the compass.
- 2 Helm, grabs the end of the 'upboard' (it is a good idea to practice this on a calm day. Chaining to a corner through manouver when using dinghies. It is certainly something to be and avoid but not how. When you know the drill the worst that can happen – if you get well!).
- 3 Helm, grabs the jib sheet, climbs on the sheet over the ground but into the air – uncontrolled and pressure to not back on the sheet.
- 4 Helm, grabs the jib sheet, climbs on the sheet over the ground but into the air – uncontrolled and pressure to not back on the sheet.
- 5 Helm, grabs the jib sheet, climbs on the sheet over the ground but into the air – uncontrolled and pressure to not back on the sheet.
- 6 Helm, grabs the jib sheet, climbs on the sheet over the ground but into the air – uncontrolled and pressure to not back on the sheet.

Advanced sailing

Tacking

Tacking with the trapeze
Tacking a trapeze boat requires greater agility and seamwork. It takes longer for the crew to come in off the trapeze and get back out on the other side, so the helms must learn to give plenty of warning and turn the boat slower through the wind.

- 1 Helm calls 'Ready about' to warn crew of imminent tack and, whenever possible, turns the manouver to coincide with naturally flat water between waves.
- 2 Helm heads up slightly to depress the boat and allow the crew to come in without having to let out lots of manouver – which would all have to be pulled in again on the opposite side and slow acceleration out of the tack.
- 3 Helm and crew settle in to new tack.
- 4 Crew swings out on the trapeze, pulling the jib in tight as he goes, while helm turns the manouver to suit.
- 5 Helm and crew then cross to the opposite side of the boat, crew releasing the jib sheet as he comes aboard.
- 6 Helm eases manouver at the boat cross, head to wind.

THE BLITZ

BOMBERS OVER BRITAIN 1940-41

For months, 'The Few' had defended Britain against the might of the Luftwaffe. Then, on 7 September 1940, everything changed. Instead of targeting airfields, the German bombers turned their attention to London. The Blitz had begun.

For two months, London was systemically attacked in one of the most sustained aerial bombing campaigns in history.

The onslaught soon spread to other cities, including Liverpool, Bristol, Cardiff, Hull, Birmingham and Belfast, causing widespread destruction. In the face of this extreme devastation and heartbreak, however, came stories of survival, heroism and courage from the people of Britain. With sections examining life in the shelters, Britain's air raid defenses and bomb disposal, citizen heroics and the rise of crimes such as looting, this book takes a look back at the Luftwaffe's unsuccessful attempt to break the British spirit and shares what life was really like during the Blitz.

Idea toxic is a culture where creativity is not welcome. Culturally people view new ideas as trouble. There is indifference to finding any better way. There is cynicism born of apathy and negative experiences.

Idea wasteful is a culture where people tend to treat ideas casually. People think that ideas are nothing. They think that new ideas are simple, easy to find and not really worth doing anything about. They view creativity as the opposite of productivity. There is often no organized - or effective - way of dealing with new ideas.

Idea friendly is a culture that welcomes new ideas when they arrive. People know that they are valuable. People want to examine ideas and see how they contribute in a fast organized way.

Idea hungry is a culture where people seek out new ideas.

People want to understand how to make the world better. They want to make a difference. They are driven by curiosity to question assumptions. People view their expertise as a starting point. They want to contribute to new knowledge rather than use what they know as a defense mechanism for keeping facts to most elite groups. Individuals and their networks challenge boundaries. People see innovation as motivational.

Always hungry.

Not everything new is good for you. At least it won't always be that way. And even if it's good for you, it may not be good for everyone.

Maybe, in time, people will welcome the change - but not always.

Maybe, in time, people will accept that the new way is a better way - but not always.

New doesn't always work as hoped. Even successful innovations, those that become popular and offer clear improvements, can be painful for many.

The new way replaces the old way, so it requires new skills and new approaches.

Some attempts at innovation are disastrous. Being new is not the same as being good. So, let's talk about the four pains of a new idea.

THIS IS GOING TO HURT

YOU CAN'T CONTROL THE WAVES

(SO LEARN TO SURF)

The waves of innovation are bigger than any individual, company or nation. They are also more complex. You can create something new but there is no way of being sure who will use it or what they will use it to achieve. Recognizing waves requires a mixture of history and fashion. There are big waves that roll through society over decades, centuries or longer. Then there are smaller waves that change what is popular or possible. Each industry has its own waves. Each company affects, and is affected by, waves outside of its control but within its influence. Thinking about big waves deepens understanding about the direction of human preference and progress. Surfing waves involves a mixture of suppleness and strength. You don't know exactly what is coming so adaptability matters as much as, or more than, initial direction.

BE THE SHARK (KEEP MOVING FORWARD)

Like sharks are collectors of concepts put to work in the real world. New ideas compete with old ideas. Old ideas compete with new ideas. Idea sharks keep swimming and feeding to survive. By thinking like a shark to better understand how they may attack. And to see your own weaknesses from the point of view of predators. Be the shark if you want to help your ideas succeed. Grow stronger, keep moving, stay hungry, hunt well. Being the shark doesn't mean you have to be unethical, just that you need to find a way of winning.

THE ART OF METAL

This book explores the ways in which the art has helped to define each of the crucial subgenres that make up the multifaceted, and colourful centipede that is metal.

Let's face it, without the larger-than-life character and imagination of the art that complements it, metal just wouldn't have had the same impact. From the colourful, outlandish, yet sophisticated use of visuals for album artwork and posters, to the immediately recognisable logos of such bands as Black Sabbath, Iron Maiden, Judas Priest, Motörhead, Metallica, Slayer, and a host of others across many subgenres, there's a close-knit relationship between the riffs that thunder from the guitar and the images that have come to represent the songs, anthems, and sheer nature of the beast. Does any other form of music immediately conjure up such evocative and distinctive images as the mere mention of the term "heavy metal" does? The answer is simple: no! This book explores the ways in which the art has helped define each of the crucial subgenres that make up the multifaceted and colourful centipede that is metal.

THE DYING ALCHEMISTS

REFLECTIONS ON EXISTENCE

Melding science, philosophy, poetry and art this book is an insightful exploration of scientific ideas, discoveries and how these relate to humanity and to us as individuals.

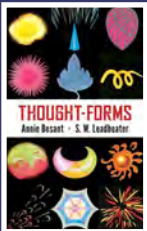

The poetry and art links the narrative chapters and gives the reader an emotional pause, while at the same time providing a thematic arc across the human experience; from wonder at our existence, through the passage of an individual life, and finally, providing a requiem for love and loss.

The Dying Alchemists is a collation of scientific knowledge humans have acquired over the last several thousand years, presented in layman's terms, and is placed alongside lines of philosophical thought and reflection through poetry. The book shows a unity and networking of processes and patterns from the sub-atomic level to the grand arc of the Universe, connecting these to the similarly patterned and complex lives of human beings.

The combination of prose, poetry and visual art is a rich celebration of life and the wonders of existence and consciousness.

DAVID BOWIE ROCK 'N' ROLL WITH ME

David Bowie: Rock 'n' Roll with Me is Geoff MacCormack's remarkable photographic memoir, charting his lifelong friendship with David Bowie. Images bring MacCormack's stories to life, showing the places he and Bowie inhabited, the people they met and the adventures they shared. Beginning at Burnt Ash Primary school in the mid-1950s, the years go by in a whirlwind of discovering and making music. The book contains nearly 150 photos taken by MacCormack throughout the years, some never seen before: from touring the Ziggy Stardust and Aladdin Sane shows and sailing to New York on a world tour, to Bowie's first major film The Man Who Fell to Earth and the recording of Station to Station and his Thin White Duke persona.

David Bowie: Rock 'n' Roll With Me is an incredible story, told with wit and candour. A must for all Bowie fans, it sheds a rare insight into a friendship where two men shared their love for music from the moment they met to their final goodbyes.

IN SEARCH OF TIME

We talk about time all the time; in fact, it is the most used noun in the English language. Yet, we have a very limited understanding of what time really is and find it difficult to explain it. The clock itself has become essential in our lives and having a shared idea of what time is has been critical for the evolution of our societies.

However, time also comes with frustrations: we never seem to have enough of it during our busy days, we are bothered about our big life clock ticking too fast, and we are saddened by the lack of long-term considerations by decision makers. So, can we somehow maintain the good aspects of time and deal with the bad, by gaining a better perception of what time really is? This book looks at time through ten lenses in order to grasp a better understanding of it, as well as laying out the benefits of getting rid of our self-imposed bad time habits.

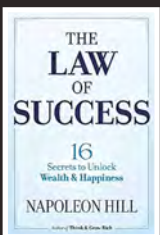

♥ A multi-dimensional perspective and analysis of time – to give us a deeper understanding of its role and impact on our lives

ANTARCTICA

A CONTINENT OF WONDER

Join scientists on an unforgettable journey to Antarctica in this illustrated children's book. Antarctica was only discovered 200 years ago and since its discovery, explorers, sailors and scientists have been travelling to the world's only uninhabited continent to learn all they can about its icy environment. This book follows the story of a group of researchers on their half-year stay in Antarctica. Their goal was to examine the animals, plants, atmosphere, weather, and fossils in the area. Through full-page illustrations, children will experience the work and life of these explorers and scientists as they study penguins, whales and seals, measure the depth of the ice, chart wind speeds of up to 186 mph (300km/h), examine old volcanoes, and withstand some of the lowest temperatures ever recorded. Equal parts thrilling adventure and in depth exploration, this book is an unforgettable illustrated expedition to Antarctica that is sure to satisfy the boldest bedtime traveller.

PAINT WITH THREAD

Slow down and embroider your way through the changing seasons with the beautiful debut book from embroidery artist and rising star Emillie Ferris.

Needlepainting, also known as thread painting or silk shading, is a form of embroidery that creates a realistic, lifelike effect using a single strand of thread and one simple stitch – the 'long and short' stitch. You can create gorgeous colour gradients, magical details and flowing stitch directions that are perfect if you want to embroider flora and fauna.

In this richly illustrated step-by-step guide, self-taught embroidery artist Emillie Ferris shows you how to pick up a needle and thread in the same way as a paintbrush to create strokes of colour and bring images to life on fabric.
