SLOW LIVING

FEEL-GOOD SPACES FOR CONTEMPORARY LIFE

There are many opportunities to combat the frenetic pace of modern life through personal practice, but our exterior surroundings are nearly as important as our inner worlds when it comes to our sense of well-being. With that in mind, we should all be working towards creating quiet spaces in our homes to nurture our souls and inspire calm reflection.

Slow Living collects projects that do just this – interiors that are oriented towards simplicity, conscious consumption and the natural rhythm of things through the use of soothing color palettes, natural materials and lighting. Featuring the work of architects and interior designers from around the world who seek through their work to create environments for an unhurried life.

CONTAINER ARCHITECTURE

The ultimate in sustainable architecture, containers provide a cheap and resilient building material with a myriad of possible applications. Modular, these self contained units are easy to attach to an existing build, incorporate within larger buildings or even combine together to create a single structure uniquely their own. Traditionally used in maritime and rail transport, these versatile vessels are by nature robust and durable, combining strength with all the benefits of a recycled material.

Container Architecture features some of the most innovative uses of containers in building across sectors and scales including single-family and collective housing, shopping centres, offices, schools, hotels, restaurants, shelters, laboratories and works of ephemeral architecture.

BASQUIAT X WARHOL

PAINTINGS 4 HANDS

In the spring of 2023, Fondation Louis Vuitton will be holding Basquiat x Warhol... Painting 4 hands, the most important exhibition ever devoted to the collaborative work of these two artists. The exhibition will feature more than 100 jointly signed paintings, in addition to individual works by Basquiat and Warhol, and works by other major artists (Keith Haring, Jenny Holzer, Kenny Scharf, etc.) in order to recreate the New York downtown art scene of the 1980s.

From 1984 to 1985, Jean-Michel Basquiat (1960–1988) and Andy Warhol (1928–1987) jointly produced about 160 paintings, some of the largest in their respective careers. A genuine artistic dialogue of style and form had developed between them that dealt equally well with crucial issues such as the integration of the African-American community into the narrative of North America, a continent where Warhol was a major manufacturer of icons.

SACRED ART

CREATE YOUR OWN SPIRITUAL AND MANDALA ART

A creative toolbox of techniques and ideas to take your painting to a new spiritual dimension.

All of nature is permeated by a hidden geometric creative power. From the spiral growth of ferns, fractal branching systems in trees, and symmetries in leaves and flowers: everything in nature is connected and follows universal principles.

In this exquisite book, artist Kathleen Hoffman shares her fascination with mandalas, sacred symbols such as the triskele and the labyrinth, and nature's endless wonder, through a collection of 12 step-by-step painting projects, accessible to painters of all abilities. Hoffman begins with the basic techniques of acrylic painting and then builds on this with each project, showing new design elements that are used in her pictures and how she implements them in terms of colour and composition.

This book is an invitation to connect with the power of nature and symbols and to discover the infinite variety of these structures and to unfold this beauty in your painting.

RISE OF THE METAVERSE

AN ESSENTIAL GUIDE TO WEB 3.0

The Internet is now, but the future is the metaverse.

The metaverse is a virtual-reality space in which users can interact with a computer-generated environment and others. The prediction is that the next ten years will be the golden era of the metaverse, and everyone's life, entertainment, social interaction, and work will increasingly take place in the metaverse world.

This book outlines six important trends in the era of the metaverse, that will see dramatic changes in technology and the bringing together of digital and physical worlds. People will experience a great migration of their social life and economic activities into the metaverse. Furthermore, the authors argue that, in the metaverse, we can get rid of many of the constraints of the physical world, achieve a better self in the new digital space, and truly maximize our own value as human beings. This book sets out how you can seize the opportunity of the metaverse era.

BRUNO BUILDER BAKES BREAD

Mix tops and bottoms to learn about jobs and create fantastical ones in this stereotype-defying addition to the Mix-and-Match Series.

Mix and match tops and bottoms of characters in this interactive split-page board book to learn about different jobs – and create fantastical ones! This giggle-inducing addition to the Mix-and-Match Series will introduce young readers to a variety of jobs while building vocabulary. The characters in the book defy stereotypes, opening up a world of possibilities for all children.

- ♥ Part of the Mix-and-Match series of interactive split-page board books for young readers
- ♥ Horizontally split pages allow readers to mix and match the tops and bottoms of the pages to learn about jobs and create fantastical ones

ZEBRA WON'T WEAR SPOTS

It's hard to always have good manners and even adults sometimes struggle!

Join Zebra and her friends on a particularly spotty adventure. If she's not dripping wet or very chilly, then she's feeling left out or being rather rude.

Energetic rhyming text will delight young children who will love the colourful characters and laugh out loud at the ending of the book! Will Zebra ever learn to love spots?

These board books show young children that good manners make the world a much nicer place. Using friendly animal characters to explore different elements of etiquette, each book explains a specific area of manners to help little people realise that life is easier when we're all being polite!

A CHICKEN CALLED HOPE

A Chicken Called Hope is a story about what happens when you rely on hope alone.

When faced with a challenge, Hope the chicken simply hopes for the best. The trouble is, as captain of the ship Courage, she needs more than hope to get her through the peaks and troughs of life on the high seas. But Hope only learns this lesson after Courage fails her and all hope seems lost.

This is a story about being prepared for the worst and hoping for the best.

Written by award-winning Danny Parker and illustrated by Tamlyn Teow, A Chicken Called Hope is a delightful fable about care and resilience.

WHAT WILL YOU MAKE TODAY?

What Will You Make Today? is a non-fiction picture book that invites children to explore the many ways they can make a difference in the world.

In a world bursting with possibilities, what will you make today? Will you make believe? Will you make noise? Will you make a wish? Will you make an excuse? Will you make things right? Will you make up your mind? Will you make a difference?

A series of questions subtly builds perspective from a personal standpoint, culminating in a wholistic view of the world. What Will You Make Today? aims to show children how their choices can effect change and make an impact in their own lives, in the lives of others and in the world.

I WORK @ HOME

HOME OFFICES FOR A NEW ERA

With the advent of the Covid-19 pandemic, working from home has become the new normal for many. While some people already had an existing space to work from, many had to carve out a new area for themselves to spend their working hours. With considerations of necessary furniture and infrastructure, noise reduction and separation from the comings and goings of other home dwellers, the challenge is not to be minimised, especially if working with a small footprint.

Architects and interior designers the world over have jumped on the bandwagon of home office design, creating original and productive work spaces within people's homes. I Work @ Home showcases design solutions from 30 international architects and interior designers and highlights the endless possibilities of this new home design trend which is likely here to stay.

VHF COMPANION

This book covers every type of radio call – from Mayday to calling another boat or shore station. It also covers DSC – by pushing the red button you can automatically summon help and transmit your position encoded in the message.

This little companion serves as a great reminder of crucial information. It is laminated to stand up to frequent use and serves as a first-class aide-memoire that will fit into your jacket pocket.

MAYDAY: Under international law the word Mayday may only be used if there is "grave and imminent danger to vessel, vehicle, aircraft or person which requires immediate assistance". On a VHF-DSC send a "Distress Alert" followed by the voice Mayday on channel 16. The receiving station, usually the Coastguard, will acknowledge receipt of the distress message by saying "Received Mayday". This implies that assistance will be provided. Radio silence on channel 16 is required from all those not involved.

PAN PAN: This is used to precede an urgent message where assistance is required but where the situation is not life-threatening. Use a DSC "All Ships Urgency Alert" followed by a call addressed to "All Stations" or to the Coastguard on channel 16.

PAN PAN: Can be used if urgent medical advice or assistance is required. Use a DSC "All Ships Urgency Alert" followed by a call addressed to the Coastguard on channel 16.

SECURITE: A message containing safety information on channel 16 can be prefixed secure, and addressed "All Stations". A DSC "All Ships Safety Alert" could be used. Most commonly heard from the Coastguard when there is a new gale or navigation warning.

MAYDAY RELAY: Used by a vessel, not itself in distress, to pass on distress information. Only do this if the vessel in distress is unable to send a Mayday or if the Mayday is not acknowledged. This is unlikely in an A1 area (within VHF range of a Coastguard station). If the Mayday or DSC alert is repeated it suggests that there has been no acknowledgement so consider using a DSC "All Ships Urgency Alert" and Relay on channel 16.

16. MAYDAY

"DISTRESS ALERT" AND MAYDAY

Use a Mayday only if there is grave and imminent danger to the ship or a person.

The Mayday transmission is in three parts:

- "Distress Alert" using DSC
- The Mayday call on channel 16, using high power, immediately followed by...
- The Mayday message. Include the MMSI if a "Distress Alert" was sent.
- Give latitude and longitude clearly, saying each number individually.

VOICE MAYDAY ON CHANNEL 16

Mayday, Mayday, Mayday,
This is ..... e.g. Yacht Indigo, Indigo, Indigo
Mayday ..... e.g. Yacht Indigo
(MMSI ..... )
In position ..... e.g. 51° 48' .50N
..... e.g. 001° 16' .50E

Nature of distress .....
Require immediate assistance
.... Persons of board
Other vital information e.g.abandoning vessel
Over

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

67

"Mayday Yacht Indigo.
This is Thames Coastguard,
Thames Coastguard
Received your Mayday.
Walton lifeboat is launching to your assistance.
Over."

All communication concerning the distress situation will normally be on channel 16, preceded by Mayday and the casualty's name.

16

"Mayday Indigo
Thames Coastguard
This is Walton Lifeboat. Over"

If a DSC "Distress Alert" is sent in error:

- Switch the set off and then on again, to prevent the automatic repetitions
- Transmit on channel 16:
"All stations, all stations, all stations
This is Indigo, Indigo, Indigo
MMSI 234000756.
Cancel my Distress Alert.
Distress alert transmitted in error. Out"

DOUBLE AGENT CELERY

MI5'S CROOKED HERO

With Britain braced for a German invasion, MI5 recruited an ex RNAS officer, come confidence trickster, called Walter Dicketts as a double agent. Codenamed Celery, Dicketts was sent to Lisbon with the seemingly impossible mission of persuading the Germans he was a traitor and then extract crucial secrets. Once there, the Nazis spirited him off to Germany. With his life on the line, Dicketts had to outwit his interrogators in Hamburg and Berlin before returning to Britain as, in the Nazi eyes, a German spy. Despite discovering he had been betrayed as an MI5 plant before he even left for Germany, Celery somehow got back to Lisbon. After that he persuaded an Abwehr Officer to defect, and spent nine months undercover in Brazil. A mixture of hero and crook, Dicketts was worldly and intelligent, charming and charismatic. Sometimes rich and sometimes poor, his private life was a web of complexity and deception. Using family and official records, police records, newspaper articles and memories, the author unravels the tangled yet true story of Double Agent Celery.

TAROT SPREADS YEARBOOK

A guidebook to the art of using Tarot.

The Tarot Spreads Yearbook features 52 spreads that allow beginners to get to know their decks and cards, build confidence, and find the reading methods that are most comfortable for them – all while having fun and honing their intuition. Featuring simple spreads for quick and easy readings, as well as more complex in-depth spreads for longer readings, the book is an easily accessible handbook for readers just setting out on their Tarot journey, the more experienced Tarot reader looking to expand and explore new ways of using their cards, or even just the casual Tarot reader who is looking for a fun way to experiment.

With 52 ideas for spreads that cover all areas of life, The Tarot Spreads Yearbook introduces readers to using the tarot as a tool for mindfulness, allowing the reader to feel more in tune with the world around them and develop trust in their own instincts.

WILDLIFE ANATOMY

Julia Rothman's series of Anatomy books are beloved by children and adults alike. In Wildlife Anatomy, Rothman captures the excitement and distinctive attributes of wild animals around the world.

The book is packed with hundreds of her charming, original illustrations, detailing the unique features of animals of the rainforest, desert, grasslands, oceans, and much more. From lions, bears, and zebras to monkeys, mongoose, bats, elephants, giraffes, hippos, and much more, Rothman's visual guide covers all the key features, right down to the anatomy of a lion's claw and a wild horse's hoof.

All the illustrations are accompanied by labels, intriguing facts, and identifying details, such as: When is a Panther Not a Panther? and What Makes Aardvarks So Odd?

Rothman's characteristic combination of curiosity and an artist's eye makes this wildlife treasury rich and full, and promises new discoveries every time it's opened.

COASTAL POETRY

FROM YARRA BAY TO WATSON'S BAY

Come on a coastal journey...

Local writers Libby Hathorn and Elizabeth Cummings were unusually busy during Covid, exploring the coastal wonders of some of the eastern coastline of Sydney.

They responded in poetry to time spent at beaches and on boardwalks from Yarra Bay to Watson's Bay; and Coastal Poetry with its artful photographic depictions of each beach is the result.

This unique publication gives insight into the by-the-sea treasures of life in the writers' local environment celebrating the wonders of nature by the sea.

The Understudy

Clovelly Beach,

a strange narrow reaching inlet,
concrete flanks, chained steps,
subterranean theatre.

A mecca to crowds of swimmers,
prime viewing to the dress circle of the reef.
All are ushered

for the show-stopping glamour of fish who sashay along this underwater stage.

A player, one of Bluey's descendants, another "Elvis of the Sea"
comes into the spotlight, bows down to grasp a sea urchin. Star act!

Whilst in the wings
stealthy between the rocky recesses a Port Jackson shark glides by, makes its way to somewhere else.

EC

Birds on a Rock Platform

30 white birds synchronise their white fluttering lift-off,
30 little hearts must beat so fast,
30 little bodies tilt into the wind
to be airborne so perfectly together.
Startled apart they make line formations,
wide wheeling clever arcs again and again.
An invisible sign and as one they land on the wide rock platform to mew and call, to scabble, 30 scavenger gulls again.

DEPENDING ON STRANGERS

FREEDOM, MEMORY & THE UNKNOWN SELF

An exploration of our unknown self and how we interact in a world of strangers, some of whom we have to depend upon.

We live in a world where our livelihood depends on our ability to relate to strangers. The central quality that defines strangers is that they are unknown. Because strangers are unknown, they represent, in the world outside, the unknown self within.

The unknown self is the core of the personality considered as a potential to become something yet to be determined. To be already known is to be determined prior to and independently of our presence in our lives. At the outset of the process of taking form, the individual is, in a sense, a stranger to self and to others. The more this is the case, the greater the openness of the process of self-formation and the more marked the role of freedom from predetermination in that process. Freedom from predetermination exists along three dimensions: the free movement of thoughts and ideas or "inner freedom"; the freedom to relate, which is also the freedom not to relate; and freedom in relating, which is the possibility of maintaining secure self-boundaries in relations with others.

DESERT ESCAPES

THE WORLD'S MOST INCREDIBLE PLACES TO STAY

In some of the world's harshest environments, creativity blooms. The desert, long a source of inspiration for artists and writers, is now also the location for some of the world's most extraordinary accommodation. In spite of the extreme environment and limited resources, architects and designers have found ways to embrace the challenges of the desert to create remarkable retreats that immerse guests in sublime surroundings.

Through stunning photography and text that brings the environment to life, this book takes you on a journey around the world's deserts, from the Sahara in Morocco to the Sonoran in the USA. It transports you to 40 of the dreamiest overnight stays these landscapes have to offer, from luxury villas to renovated Airstreams. Ideal for those who love to pair the outdoors and adventure with exceptional accommodation, so you'll discover where to stay and what to do there, from camel trekking across dunes and hot-air ballooning, to nature walks with indigenous guides and stargazing under some of the world's darkest skies.

MONTE CARLO

A treasure trove of glitz and glamour awaits on an exclusive two-mile coastline along the Mediterranean Sea. High-rollers, professional athletes and international stars flock to Monaco in droves. Although packed with flashy sports cars, luxury apartments, super-yachts and unlimited entertainment, this rocky promontory does not lack for culture and history. The sovereign family ensures that the principality's distinguished heritage is preserved and appreciated. And its over-the-top opulence is merely equal to its charm. Yet it all exists harmoniously within two hundred hectares of land.

The list of Monaco regulars reads like the guest list to the ultimate private party: Charles Leclerc, Grace Kelly, Sir Roger Moore, Tyra Banks, Frank Sinatra, Rudolf Nureyev, Bjorn Borg and Ringo Starr, to name a few. With exclusive images from the palace archives and a foreword by Prince Albert II of Monaco, Monte Carlo offers readers a front-row seat with VIP access to the jewel of the French Riviera.
