MODERN HOUSES IN BLACK

A black home commands attention. Black adds drama, sophistication, and edginess to residential architecture. In Modern Houses in Black, Susan Redman explores the trend in black home design through a curated collection of twenty-eight residential properties across the world.

Illustrated with striking images of houses sited in either urban settings or remote rural landscapes, the book features these bespoke residences confidently displaying their dark exteriors, making a bold statement wherever they are located.

By including interviews with architects who explain their design choices for structure and materiality, from black-stained or burnt wood and metal cladding to black glazed brickwork and tinted concrete, Redman provides insights for current developments in the trend.

The homes featured will appeal to lovers of distinctive design, particularly to those who appreciate both the elegance and daring that black offers modern residential architecture.

PICASSO: ENDLESSLY DRAWING

Fifty years after Picasso's death, this magnificent collection of drawings offers a career-spanning tour of the artist's brilliant and dynamic use of line and a window into the heart and soul of the most prolific aspect of his oeuvre.

From his early studies to his final works, drawing was, for Picasso, an ever-renewing exploration of the powers of the line. Comprising over three hundred reproductions from his massive oeuvre, this collection features both well-received and rarely seen works, as well as images from his extraordinary notebooks. It features fifty penetrating essays that examine the themes, symbols and techniques that echo throughout Picasso's career— from monsters, crucifixions, and self-portraits to crayon, cross-hatching, and ink. It includes book illustrations and plans for sculptures; colour and figure studies; collage and journal entries.

Stunning full-colour reproductions allow readers to appreciate the enormous inventiveness and diversity of Picasso's work, from serpentine lines to hatched drawing, from the delicate nuances of pastel to the deep blacks of ink.

I do not believe in art which has not been created from being the mind's compulsion to open his heart. All art - literature as well as music must be created with one's lifeblood - Art is one's lifeblood.

One shall no longer paint interiors, people reading and women knitting. They will be people who are alive, who tremble and feel, suffer and love - I shall paint a number of such pictures. People will understand the necessity of it and they will take off their hats as in a church.

I walked along a road one evening - on one side the town and the fjord lay beneath me. I was weary and sick - I stood looking out over the fjord - the sun was setting - the clouds turned the colour red - like blood - I felt as though a scream passed through nature - I thought I heard a scream - I painted this picture - painted the clouds like real blood - the Colours screamed - It became the picture Scream in the frieze of life.

Two burning lips against mine. Heaven and earth vanished. And two black eyes gazed into mine.

LANDSCAPES IN WATERCOLOUR

TECHNIQUES AND TUTORIALS FOR THE COMPLETE BEGINNER

Landscapes in Watercolour breaks down ten progressively more challenging paintings into easy-to-achieve steps for the absolute beginner.

A variety of landscape paintings, from a midwinter farm and a sunny woodland to a coastal waterfront and boats in an estuary are featured. Each watercolour is broken down into four or five steps, showing the reader how simple it can be to achieve stunning results as they build up their painting from the background colour and add the finishing details.

The reader will learn how to simplify the scene in front of them, allowing them to recreate the essence of the landscape for the viewer without slaving over an easel for hours. Interspersed with the tutorials are special masterclasses covering trees, skies and reflections. Readers will benefit from the section on choosing tools and materials, and introductory topics on colour theory, composition and perspective, as well as the essential basic drawing and painting techniques.

BABY'S FIRST 100 WORDS

A LIFT-THE-FLAP BOOK

Bright, bold and built for little ones, this sturdy flap book is a fun, interactive way to introduce the first 100 words in a child's vocabulary, from the usual tractor and trains to spaghetti, swimsuit and superhero!

There are five themes in Baby's First 100 Words: around the home, getting dressed, vehicles, animals and mealtime. The images are bright, colourful and inclusive, and the fun flaps are strong enough to withstand enthusiastic little hands. There are page tabs, too, to help toddlers turn the pages.

Perfect for shared reading with babies from 8 months, the book is ideal for identifying and naming familiar things in their world. With repetitive reading, they will learn the association between words and pictures. Before long they will be saying the words and lifting the flaps by themselves, so it's not only great for speech and language development, but it's good for their motor skills too!

What is music?
Music is when sounds, either vocal, rhythmic or instrumental, or all three, are arranged in a combination that sends a pleasing signal to the ear. Often music expresses emotion.

Meet the string family
Stringed instruments are any instrument that makes a sound from the vibrations of a stretched string made from gut, metal or nylon. The sound of the string is made louder by an amplifying board and the string can be plucked, bowed or struck to make it vibrate and produce a sound.

CROCHET ILLUSION BLANKETS

A collection of eye-catching 3D effect crochet patterns for different sized blankets and throws, which all have an optical illusion effect. These cleverly designed geometric blankets look impressive but are actually simple to make because the designer only uses one technique, intarsia crochet, and simple stitches.

There are 15 different designs in a variety of sizes from smaller throws through to large afghans. All of the crochet blanket patterns are written out in full and there are large charts for each of the designs for crocheters who prefer to follow charts.

All of the patterns use the crochet intarsia technique and there instructions for how to prepare your yarn in separate balls before you get started so you don't end up in a tangle. There are also step-by-step instructions for how to do the crochet intarsia stitch including advice on changing colour.

LA TABLE BY CELINE

EXQUISITE FOOD ART THAT BRINGS NATURE TO THE PLATE

Popular food stylist and blogger Celine Rousseau invites fans to bring her appealing, whimsical food art to life in their own kitchens.

On her Instagram account, Celine Rousseau has posted nearly a thousand images of epicurean creations whimsically styled in the shapes of daisies, cherry blossoms, tulips, roses, bees, seashells, fish, and leaves. Now for the first time she shows readers how to create their own edible art, drawing from her most popular posts as well as some completely new ideas.

The sixty recipes in this book include sweet and savory meals inspired by French, Italian, Korean, and Japanese cuisine—and turn everyday favourites such as pizza, sandwiches, cakes and cookies into fun, playful celebrations of nature, holidays, and the seasons. Celine presents her take on dishes such as apple pie, macarons, sushi, and focaccia, as well as sharing traditional Korean and Japanese dishes like bingsu and okonomiyaki. Every chapter tells Celine’s personal story, reflecting her life in Asia, America and Europe, her passion for good food, and her love of the natural world.

THE JOY OF ROSES

(Re)discover the most charming flower of all time!

The rose is generally seen as the most romantic flower. No other plant blooms for so long and profusely, and comes in so many different shapes, scents and colours. Roses deserve a place in everyone's home, outside – in the garden or on the balcony – but certainly also indoors on the table.

The Joy of Roses answers every question you may have about roses: from the history of the rose to applications in the home. The different types of roses are discussed in detail with descriptions of the flower, the scent, the thorns, the inflorescence and information about the best place for this specific species. The book also provides information about cultivators, which flowers go well with roses and their care.

Anneke Beemer's beautiful photos complete the book.

TEN POEMS ABOUT BUTTERFLIES

Butterflies must be the most beautiful of all insects. They are with us while the warm weather lasts, and seeing a Brimstone in a garden early in the year is one of the most delightful heralds of spring's arrival.

The vividness and frailty of butterflies as they flicker across our summer meadows are why they seem to embody a sense of transience – and may also be why they are so popular with poets. For Judith Wright a butterfly's short life is all about love:

*"Lifted by air and dream
they rose and circled into heaven's slipstream
to seek each other over fields of blue."*

- from 'Wings' by Judith Wright

This glorious selection celebrates butterflies from all over the world – from a Swallowtail in the English Fens to a Spotted Jezebel in Australia – and reminds us to look closely at their dazzling beauty while we can.

Wings

Between great coloured vanes the butterflies drift to the sea with fixed bewildered eyes.
Once all their world was food; then sleep took over,
dressed them in cloaks and furs for some great lover –
Some Juan, some Helen. Lifted by air and dream
they rose and circled into heaven's slipstream
To seek each other over fields of blue.
Impassioned unions waited – can't-come-true
Images. Blown, a message or a kiss earth sent them to the sun's tremendous Yes.
Once met and joined, they sank; complete and brief
Their sign was fastened back upon the leaf;
empty of future now, the wind turned cold,
their rich furs worn, they thim to membraned gold.
Poor Rimbauds never able to return out of the searing rainbows they put on,
Their wings have trapped them. Staring helplessly they blow beyond the headland, to the sea.

DOWNFALL OF HITLER

HIS PERSONAL, MILITARY AND SOCIAL FAILURES

Hitler's career remains one of the most extraordinary in world history. No one else has gone from sleeping on park benches to become a world leader. After the First World War he became involved in extremist politics – first on the far left and then the far right.

It is often assumed that Hitler's ambitions were never realistic and his failure was inevitable. This book challenges that view and suggests a number of missed opportunities or misjudgements that might have led to a different result.

Michael FitzGerald shows how Hitler's personal defects contributed considerably to Germany's defeat. In addition to the military mistakes he made a series of political, economic and foreign policy blunders were major factors in his failure to achieve his goals.

ASSIGNMENT 03

- TIPS
- As a street photographer you will have to be quick and ready to capture the moment. Use a fast shutter speed to freeze the action. Use a wide aperture to create a shallow depth of field.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing.

ABSTRACT NATURE

You can find a myriad of fascinating colors, textures, and patterns in nature and many of them can only be appreciated from above. For this reason, you can enjoy many great opportunities that are right in your driveway. Identify imagery after sunrise, dawn, and sunset, and use the low angle of the sun to create a sense of depth. You can also use the low angle of the sun to create a sense of depth.

You may find natural abstract patterns in any part of the environment, but flowers, patterns, textures, and colors can be particularly interesting. As you look for any natural light opportunities in nature, but pay particular attention to nature patterns and colors. If you find an abstract pattern, take a moment to observe it and see how it looks from above.

Once you have your drone at an altitude that includes what you want to fly to, and the camera is focused correctly, you can adjust the zoom and shutter speed on the controller to find the frame you need. As the drone flies, take high and low-angle shots to see how the patterns look from different perspectives. You may find that the patterns look different from different angles.

- TIPS
- As you can see in the image above, the lighting is very dramatic. The sky is dark, and the ground is lit up by the lights of the city. This is a great example of how to use light to create a sense of mood and atmosphere. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing.
 - Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

DRONE LIGHTING

For this assignment, you'll use your drone to light a subject from above while taking the photograph with a ground-level camera. Many drones have a small, downward-facing LED light that you can switch on to illuminate the subject. Some drones also have a ground-level light that you can switch on to illuminate the subject. This is a great way to create a sense of mood and atmosphere. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

ASSIGNMENT 23

- TIPS
- As a street photographer you will have to be quick and ready to capture the moment. Use a fast shutter speed to freeze the action. Use a wide aperture to create a shallow depth of field.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing.

MINIATURE EFFECT

You've probably seen real-world shots that look like miniature models. They are sometimes known as 'toy drone' shots because they look like they were taken with a toy drone. This is a great way to create a sense of mood and atmosphere. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

Your assignment is to take a drone photograph and modify it using a miniature 'toy drone' effect. This is a great way to create a sense of mood and atmosphere. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

- TIPS
- Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing.
 - Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

ASSIGNMENT 49

- TIPS
- As a street photographer you will have to be quick and ready to capture the moment. Use a fast shutter speed to freeze the action. Use a wide aperture to create a shallow depth of field.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.
 - Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing.

TOP-DOWN TEXTURES

If you're looking for a new way to take your drone photography, top-down textures are a great way to create a sense of mood and atmosphere. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

You can find interesting textures in a wide variety of settings. Consider agricultural fields, forests, and urban environments. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

There are a few ways you can emphasize the texture patterns of the setting image. The problem here is to increase the contrast, but there are many ways to do this. Use a low angle to make the subject appear more imposing. Use a high angle to make the subject appear more vulnerable.

GENDER A GRAPHIC GUIDE

Join the creators of Queer: A Graphic History ('Could totally change the way you think about sex and gender' VICE) on an illustrated journey of gender exploration.

Is masculinity 'toxic'? Why are public toilets such a political issue? How has feminism changed the available gender roles - and for whom? Why might we all benefit from challenging binary thinking about sex/gender?

In this unique illustrated guide, Meg-John Barker and Jules Scheele travel through our shifting understandings of gender across time and space - from ideas about masculinity and femininity, to non-binary and trans genders, to intersecting experiences of gender, race, sexuality, class, disability and more.

Tackling current debates and tensions, which can divide communities and even cost lives, Barker and Scheele look to the past and the future to explore how we might all approach gender in more caring and celebratory ways.

VAMPIRATES 1 DEMONS OF THE OCEAN

Revamped new edition of the bestselling VAMPIRATES series, with new exclusive content added!

The year is 2512. The oceans have risen. A new dawn of piracy has begun.

Following the sudden death of their father, twins Grace and Connor Tempest hastily depart the suffocating small town of Crescent Moon Bay in their dad's old sailing boat. Caught in a vicious storm, they are shipwrecked and separated in the cold, cruel ocean.

Connor is saved by Cheng Li, Deputy Captain of The Diablo – the notorious pirate ship, captained by flamboyant rule-breaker and pirate royalty, Molucco Wrathe.

Grace, meanwhile, is taken by handsome Midshipman Lorcan Furey, onto a mysterious ship with no name, a blood-red deck and an enigmatic, seemingly absent, Captain.

In a world of danger and secrets, will the twins ever be reunited?
