ART NOUVEAU

THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFUL BUILDINGS FROM GUIMARD TO GAUDI

Following his most recent book, Art Deco City, author-photographer Arnold Schwartzman focuses his attention on the Art Nouveau style around the world, from Paris to Barcelona and beyond.

Distinguished by their lavish sculpture, metalwork or tile facades, Art Nouveau buildings certainly stand out. Art Nouveau buildings are unique, audacious and inspirational. Rejecting historic styles, considered inappropriate for an era driven by progress, architects and designers sought a new vocabulary of architectural forms. Their vision was shaped by modern materials and innovative technologies, including iron, glass and ceramics. A truly democratic style, Art Nouveau transformed life on the eve of the twentieth century and still captivates our imaginations today.

♥ A stunning collection of some of the world's greatest Art Nouveau buildings – from factories, hotels and commercial buildings to theatres and private residences

♥ More than 200 beautifully detailed photographs offer a visual journey through the world's cities

BIRDS OF THE WORLD

THE ART OF ELIZABETH GOULD

Artist and illustrator Elizabeth Gould is finally given the recognition she deserves in this gorgeous volume that includes hundreds of her stunning and scientifically precise illustrations of birds from nearly every continent.

For all of her short life, Elizabeth Gould's artistic career was appreciated through the lens of her husband, ornithologist John Gould, with whom she embarked on a series of ambitious projects to document and illustrate the birds of the world. Elizabeth played a crucial role in her husband's lavish publications, creating beautifully detailed and historically significant accurate illustrations of over six hundred birds - many of which were new to science. However, Elizabeth's role was not always fully credited and, following her tragic death aged only thirty-seven, her efforts and talent were nearly forgotten.

This marvellous volume offers a new and timely tribute to Elizabeth's reputation and skill. It opens with an introduction to her life and achievements that reflects the latest scholarship. Following is a geographically organized collection of full-colour plates depicting birds from nineteenth-century Europe, South and Central America, Africa, Asia, and Australia including previously unpublished original artworks.

LONDON SHOPFRONTS

This love letter to London's most cherished shops celebrates the city's past and present, as well as its diversity and vivaciousness.

Made with the same energy as NYC Storefronts, this book has a distinctly English vibe. It divides the city into five navigable sections (Central, North, East, South, and West), and highlights its diverse mix of cultures. In each chapter is a sprawling selection of shops, brought to life by Holland's charming drawings and London-based journalist Rosie Hewitson's captivating descriptions.

This collection of more than two hundred shopfronts runs the gamut of old to modern-day London: stately bookshops, umbrella stores, tailors, hatters, and pubs, but also trendy restaurants, bars, and boutiques. An informative guide and lasting keepsake for London lovers of every age and style.

TO APPLY A TATTOO

- Cut out the tattoo and remove the plastic cover.
- Stick the tattoo, picture-side down, onto clean, dry skin.
- Place a wet cloth over the tattoo. Press down gently for about 30 seconds. Hold it still.
- Gently slide off the paper backing. Do not touch until it's dry. Enjoy your scaly look!

Tip: To remove tattoos, soak with rubbing alcohol or baby oil. Wait 10 seconds, then rub gently. Apply more rubbing alcohol or baby oil repeatedly until removed.

GREEN BASILISK (Basiliscus alvarezii)

These Central American lizards live in tree-adjacent ponds or rivers. When fleeing danger, they stand in the water where they have the unique ability to run on their hind feet across its surface without sinking.

GREEN IGUANA (Cyclura penicillata)

These lizards are some of the largest of the Americas. The males have a large dewlap under the throat, which they open to warn other males invading their home turf. The dewlap will either leave or challenge the rival.

GREEN SEA TURTLE (Chelonia mydas)

Widespread in the world's tropical and subtropical waters, these large marine turtles have smooth shells and powerful flippers for graceful, streamlined swimming. Their name comes from the color of their fat, not of their shell.

GILARAGDS GIANT TORTOISE (Chelonoidis nigra)

These extraordinary-size giants live on the Galápagos Islands off the coast of Ecuador and weigh between 330 and 440 pounds. They can go without food for up to a year.

GILA MONSTER (Dipsosaurus dorsalis)

Weighing up to 5 pounds, these North American lizards have heavy bodies and thick tails to store fat so they need to hunt less often. With their powerful jaws, they can hold prey in a venomous bite for up to 10 minutes.

GREEN ANACONDA (Echis moinaxi)

The world's heaviest snake, these powerful hunters from South America weigh up to 550 pounds and can crush animals as large as a billy. They hide in shallow water, waiting for prey to approach.

BOOKS AND THE PEOPLE WHO MAKE THEM

This unique, fun and informative introduction to the publishing world shows young readers how a book makes its journey from the writer's notebook to the reader's hands.

What's missing from the world of children's books? A book about how a book gets made!

This behind-the-scenes exploration features colourful and quirky double page spreads that depict every stage in the life of a book. Young readers will learn why an editor's to-do list is so long; what's important to a book designer; how a book gets sold to libraries and stores; and what a printing press looks like. They'll discover jobs they might not have known about, including literary critics, librarians, and sales representatives. And they'll learn about topics beyond publishing, such as fan fiction, ebooks and audiobooks, and book collecting. Most of all, they'll realize how the book they are reading actually came to be made.

Perfect for readers to peruse on their own or with their favourite grown up, this book is the first of its kind—a perfect complement to every young booklover's library.

ELEGY FOR AN ELEPHANT

Those who leave, live on through our living...

Elegy for an Elephant is a story of three children seeking their father's soul. It honours ways we can connect with loved ones we have lost, and the timeless nature of love. Their process of discovery takes them from the depths of the ocean to the eternity of the night sky and stars.

This book is offered as a beacon of hope and therapeutic resource for readers navigating grief, and for the families and communities supporting them.

*Their love lives on through the clouds of our dreams,
across the landscapes of our hearts,
and in the oceans of our souls.*

Elegy for an Elephant chronicles the journey of Ryan and his sisters to find acceptance in, and repair from the loss of their father to suicide. Inspired by his family's story, it is Ryan's wish that all those who read this book will feel seen, supported and carried in their healing journey.

VAMPIRATES 1 DEMONS OF THE OCEAN

Following the sudden death of their father, twins Grace and Connor Tempest hastily depart the suffocating small town of Crescent Moon Bay in their dad's old sailing boat. Caught in a vicious storm, they are shipwrecked and separated in the cold, cruel ocean.

Connor is saved by Cheng Li, Deputy Captain of The Diablo the notorious pirate ship, captained by flamboyant rule-breaker and pirate royalty, Molucco Wrathe.

Grace, meanwhile, is taken by handsome Midshipman Lorcan Furey, onto a mysterious ship with no name, a blood-red deck and an enigmatic, seemingly absent, Captain. In a world of danger and secrets, will the twins ever be reunited?

IT'S ALL ABOUT ANIMAL PRINT

As a street style and backstage photographer, Suzanne Middlemass can always be found close to the catwalks of this world. Fans admire her unusual photographs in fashion and lifestyle magazines such as VOGUE, Elle, GQ and Grazia. Now Middlemass has compiled her best shots in thematically sorted books under the series title It's All About.

In the first volume, It's All About Animal Print, the author devotes herself to the most stylish and craziest trends in leo looks, zebra patterns or tiger stripes. Middlemass not only shows extraordinary outfits by well-known designers who present their latest creations at the big fashion shows. For her pictures, the artist travels to the famous fashion shows of the Big Four in Milan, Paris, London and New York and photographs fashion, stars, influencers, or people who simply present a special style. Because whether it's clothes, shoes, accessories or fingernails, leopard prints and tiger stripes are everywhere.

A LOVE AFFAIR WITH PEONIES

Driven by a passion for horticulture from a young age, RHS Chelsea Gold Medal-winner Alec White shares his extensive expertise and personal experience in this illustrated celebration of the peony.

Varied chapters introduce each of the qualities that make this remarkable flower stand out, their many varieties, scents and colours, how to care for and cultivate your plants, the historical and cultural significance of the peony and the hard work and commitment needed to exhibit at the UK's leading flower shows. This is Alec's story of a dedicated career, sparked by the striking appearance of peony blooms, combined with all of the essential information needed to appreciate them to the full and keep them thriving in your own garden.

FEEL GOOD HOME

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO CONSCIOUS LIVING

This endlessly informative and inspiring guide to interior design shows how sensory perception is the key to creating a happy place inside your own home.

What do you see, hear, and smell when you walk in your front door? Do you feel safe and relaxed? Is it too warm or too cold? As people spend increasing amounts of time in their homes, it's more important than ever to feel at peace there.

Gorgeously designed and presented, this book first explains how our sensory perception affects us and influences our wellbeing. It then follows up with lavishly illustrated sections that explore a variety of ways to optimise our sensory perceptions throughout our homes: the language of colour and form; the influence of natural and artificial light; the basics of room layout; haptics and acoustics; incorporating plants and nature; optimal sleeping conditions; the importance of a healthy kitchen; common spaces and privacy; ergonomics and furniture design.

Filled with visual ideas from contemporary living spaces across the world, this book shows how stimulating the senses in the right way will help make our homes as comfortable as they can be.

COLLECTOR'S EDITIONS CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

"Pain and suffering are always inevitable for a large intelligence and a deep heart..."

Crime and Punishment is one of the greatest and most readable novels ever written. From the beginning we are locked into the frenzied consciousness of Raskolnikov who, against his better instincts, is inexorably drawn to commit a brutal double murder.

From that moment on, we share his conflicting feelings of self-loathing and pride, of contempt for and need of others, and of terrible despair and hope of redemption: and, in a remarkable transformation of the detective novel, we follow his agonised efforts to probe and confront both his own motives for, and the consequences of, his crime.

The result is a tragic novel built out of a series of supremely dramatic scenes that illuminate the eternal conflicts at the heart of human existence: most especially our desire for self-expression and self-fulfilment, as against the constraints of morality and human laws; and our agonised awareness of the world's harsh injustices and of our own mortality, as against the mysteries of divine justice and immortality.

AT HITLER'S SIDE

THE MEMOIRS OF HITLER'S LUFTWAFFE ADJUTANT, 1937-1945

This is the personal account of a Luftwaffe aide always at Hitler's side from 1937 until the last days in Berlin, now published for the first time in English. Nicolaus von Below was a 29-year-old pilot when Goering selected him for the position of Hitler's Luftwaffe adjutant. He was with Hitler at every stage as the Second World War unfolded. His observations tell of Hitler's responses to momentous events as well as military decisions and policy-making at Fuhrer Headquarters. He provides fascinating insight into how Hitler planned the invasions of Poland and Russia, what he thought of Britain and America, why he placed his faith in the V-1 and V-2 projects, how others dealt with him, and much more. Von Below was present at the assassination attempt in July 1944, and records the effect on Hitler and his followers. Von Below was the last of Hitler's close military entourage to emerge from the bunker alive. His frank memoir will appeal to anyone interested in how Hitler ran his war. He was denounced to the British in 1946 and imprisoned as a material witness at Nuremberg, until being discharged in 1947.

SPITFIRE ACES

The Supermarine Spitfire has achieved iconic status due to its exceptional design and the enduring bravery of its pilots during the conflicts of World War Two. The exploits of 40 aviators that made ace from Australia, Canada, France, Great Britain, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, South Africa and the US are examined in this volume. Their stories, and the deadly conflicts in which they took part, are told through combat reports, first-hand accounts, award citations and autobiographical extracts. This volume contains more than 240 photographs of the aces and the various Spitfires (and other fighter types) that they flew, as well as 40 meticulously researched, specially commissioned profile illustrations.

THE AVERTED PORTRAIT

A photographic meditation on the semiotics of clothing.

Photographer Corina Gertz explores clothing as nonverbal communication—symbolic of standing and status, group membership, regional identity, religious denomination and official function. The Averted Portrait showcases an ongoing series of the same name that Gertz began in 2010. As the title suggests, Gertz shoots her figures from behind; by "averting" the camera from her subjects' faces, she subverts the portraiture genre. She casts attention instead to her subjects' clothing, photographing women from around the world wearing traditional national dress. The clothing alone articulates their identities, connoting local wisdom, conventions, customs and practices. Gertz celebrates these cultural particularities, on both an aesthetic and sociopolitical level, depicting the various forms of dressing as distinct but equally precious: splendid fabrics with sumptuous embroidery shine with sculptural and painterly intensity against a deep black background, captured in a clear, expressive composition.

STORE FRONT NYC

This collection of hugely popular and critically acclaimed photos celebrates New York City's unique history and culture—from long-disappeared icons to still-thriving favourite haunts. For decades, husband-and-wife photography duo James and Karla Murray have been on a mission to document and preserve on film the various small shops of New York City—many of which are quickly disappearing—and a culture of authenticity that is hanging by just a thread. Large in format and filled with colour and affectionate detail, the book includes an introduction by the Murrays explaining the genesis of their lifelong project and why they love to photograph store fronts. Filled with diversity and character, these images honour destinations lost to rising rents and changing demographics. Together they comprise both a guidebook and a love letter to a city that never sleeps, and is always evolving.

WHISTLES THROUGH THE TALL TIMBER

The majestic mountain ranges east of Melbourne contained some of the finest stands of hardwood trees in Australia. To access the timber, a fascinating network of railways and tramways were built.

This publication tells the story of the Warburton, Powelltown and Noojee railways, along with the prominent timber tramways of the region, from an era when the tall timber was extracted by steam and sweat.

The fascinating memoirs of legendary railwaymen and timber workers are complemented by 260 magnificent photographs – many never before seen.

WHAT IS WAR?

What is War? is a book designed to offer a simple answer to all the questions kids might ask when hearing about war and conflict.

Why do countries or different ideological groups fight? What are the key points between different types of conflict? Is there such a thing as a just war? What are the tools used to wage war, from weapons to propaganda? How can we end wars, and who are the real winners and losers?

This book tells the reader through clear explanations punctuated by historical and contemporary examples what war is and how it can be prevented. It is part of a series of books for children designed to provide them with all the information they need to understand the complex world we live in.

Wonderfully informative, beautifully illustrated and a must-read for all children and adults!

CONSEQUENCES OF WAR

HOW DOES A WAR END?

PEACE and MEDIATION

WHO IS WHO INTERNATIONAL ACTORS

THE HISTORY OF WAR

Humans have always used violence. Early hunter-gatherer societies were probably already fighting "wars" to defend their territories or to steal precious resources from other groups.

As societies became more complex, so did warfare. Ancient Rome and the Han dynasty in China, for example, both commanded large armies which they used to conquer lands and fight other empires.

In places like Japan and medieval Europe, military power was held by the ruling nobles. Only they had enough money to pay for weapons, armor, and horses. Their armies fought against each other, even within the same kingdom.

The nobles lost military control when firearms were invented—their expensive armor was no use against bullets. From then on, battles were won by having a lot of foot soldiers on the battlefield.

Military technology allowed European countries to colonize other continents and impose their culture, religion, and languages on the conquered lands and people. Many of today's countries came about from this time of colonization.

As modern nations appeared, countries began to have permanent national armies paid for by the state. If war broke out, the army could call up part of the civilian population.

Wars have always existed, but there have also always been people who believe that conflicts can be settled peacefully.

Great religious thinkers such as Confucius, Lao Tzu, and Jesus Christ all preached against violence.

In medieval Europe, religious buildings were places where it was forbidden to carry weapons and fight.

In the 16th century, Thomas More wrote Utopia, a book in which he imagined an equal society where violence does not exist.

From the 18th century onward, Gottfried Leibniz and other philosophers started to think of ways of solving problems peacefully.

In the 19th century, socialism rejected war because it believed it only benefited the rich and powerful.

CAN ADVENTURE PREVENT DEMENTIA?

A GUIDE TO OUTWITTING ALZHEIMER'S

A meticulous doctor's all-consuming search for the cure to her father's Alzheimer's leads to a discovery she did not expect.

Dementia need not be a disaster or a dread; instead, it can be a doorway to creating a smarter brain, stronger body and more fulfilling life.

Moment by moment, our brain is changing in response to everything we do, think, feel and experience. This is known as neuroplasticity. We are not passive victims of our genes, our past or our environment. We play an active role in how our brain develops throughout our life, and it's never too late — or too early — to boost our brain, avert Alzheimer's and defy dementia.

Dr Helena is one of the world's leading experts on improving brain function and she draws on three decades of personal and professional experience to offer a new paradigm for enhancing our brain to enrich our life at every age.

Filled with groundbreaking scientific insights and laugh-out-loud stories of Dad and daughter's adventure with dementia, Dr Helena reveals that education is more powerful than medication and we can all grow bolder rather than older.

This autobiographical page-turner reads like a neuro-thriller and shows how we can age better than we ever imagined. Ageing is inevitable. Mental decline is not.
